

125 YEARS AT THE EDGE IN KNOWLEDGE:
NJIT's growth has included one of the region's most prominent schools of architecture

Designing New Jersey's Built Environment

OVER THE THREE DECADES SINCE ITS FOUNDING, NEW JERSEY SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE (NJSOA) HAS GRADUATED NUMEROUS TALENTED ARCHITECTS WHO PRACTICE IN THE GARDEN STATE. THESE INDIVIDUALS HAVE HAD A HUGE IMPACT ON NEW JERSEY'S BUILT ENVIRONMENT, LEAVING THEIR CREATIVE IMPRINT ON PUBLIC BUILDINGS, BUSINESS COMPLEXES AND PRIVATE HOUSING THROUGHOUT THE STATE. PROMINENT NJSOA ALUMNI EXHIBITED THEIR WORK RECENTLY AT THE SCHOOL'S DESIGN SHOWCASE 2006. FOLLOWING ARE SOME SAMPLES —

Robert S. Cusick '89, AIA, LEED
Associate, Tomaino Tomaino Iamello
& Associates, PA, Deal, NJ
Monmouth County Hall of Records, Freehold, NJ

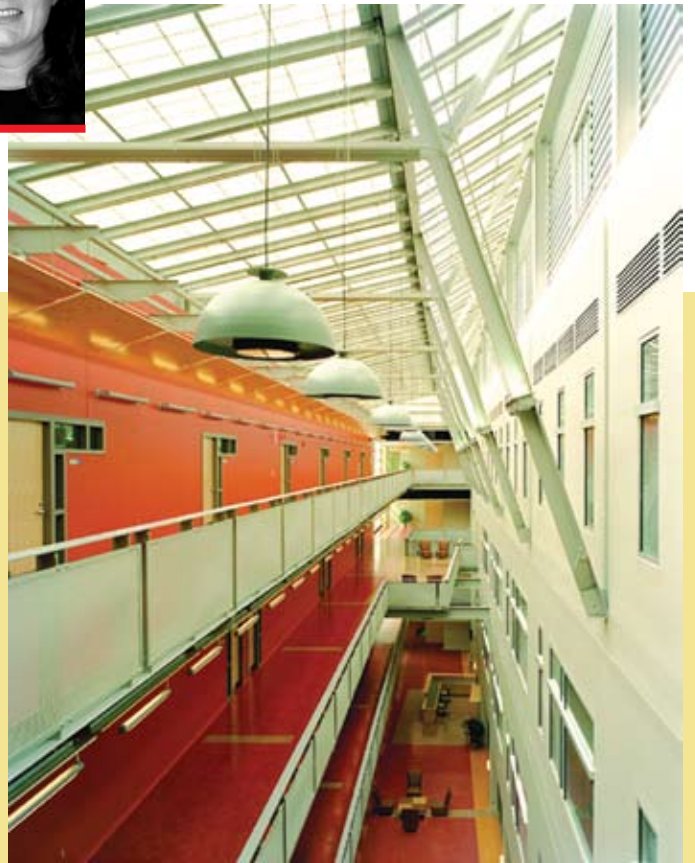

Donna Dempsey '01
Arcari & Iovino Architects, PC, Little Ferry, NJ
Synagogue, Congregation Tzemach David, Teaneck, NJ

Margaret Greco '85
KSS Architects, Princeton, NJ
Kean University Center for Academic Success, Union, NJ

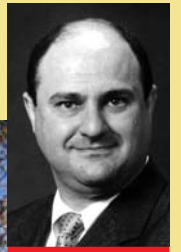

Hans Erdenberger '83, AIA
Principal, Cubellis Ecoplan, Englewood Cliffs, NJ
Wyckoff Family YMCA, Wyckoff, NJ

Michael Hanrahan '96, AIA
Clarke Caton Hintz, Trenton, NJ
Historic Hunterdon County Courthouse, Flemington, NJ

Matthew Jarmel '90, AIA
Principal, Jarmel Kizel Architects and Engineers, Livingston, NJ
French and Somerset Street Development, New Brunswick, NJ

Steven Leone '86, AIA, LEED
Principal, Cubellis Ecoplan, Freehold, NJ
Challenger Learning Center, Paramus, NJ

Scott Mihalick '97 AIA
SSP Architectural Group, Somerville, NJ
Roosevelt Elementary School, River Edge, NJ

Michael Schoenering '89
Farewell Mills Gatsch Architects, LLC, Princeton, NJ
Dorothy Young Center for the Arts Music Wing,
Drew University, Madison, NJ

Virginia Seminara '85 and Michael DeBiasse '85
DeBiasse & Seminara Architects, PC, Martinsville, NJ
Bay Street Rail Station, Montclair, NJ

Robert Zampolin '81
Zampolin & Associates, Westwood, NJ
Private residence, Freehold, NJ

AUTHOR: Carol Pilla is a senior editor with University Communications.