

Jesse Uttendorfer Named to ASUN Spring Winners for Life Team

Baseball's Jesse Uttendorfer was named to the 2017-18 ASUN Spring Winners for Life team. The team comprises of one student-athlete from each of the eight institutions from the 2017-18 academic year and honors those who display excellence on and off the playing surface.

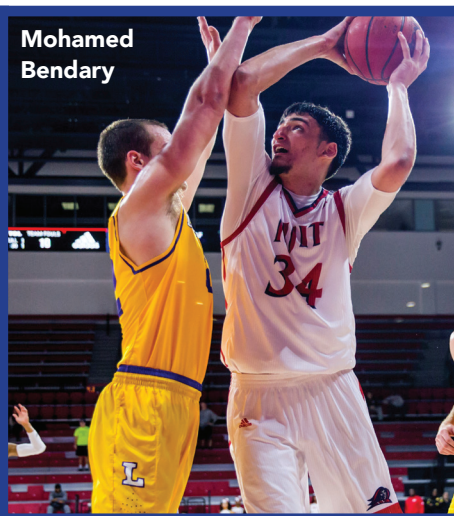

The Winners for Life team honors a campus citizen who is respected as one who shares and/or demonstrates the ASUN Core Values.

To be eligible for the award, the student-athlete must have competed during the current academic year in an ASUN sponsored sport and be in good academic standing at his/her university.

While earning his MBA with a 3.56 cumulative GPA from NJIT this year, Uttendorfer guided the Highlanders to their first-ever appearance in the ASUN Baseball Championship. A two-year captain at NJIT, Uttendorfer earned First Team All-Conference and his second selection to the All-Academic Team. An Albert Dorman Honors College scholar, he graduated magna cum laude with a B.S. in business after eight straight semesters on the Dean's List. ■

Reilly Walsh

Mohamed Bendary

Scott Quirie Named CCSA Men's Scholar Athlete of the Year

NJIT men's swimmer Scott Quirie was named Coastal Collegiate Sports Association (CCSA) Men's Scholar Athlete of the Year. Quirie has not only been outstanding in the pool for the Highlanders, but also in the classroom. Boasting a 3.96 GPA, the chemical engineering major is an Albert Dorman Honors College Scholar and has been on the Dean's List every semester since he started as a freshman. A member of the Chi Alpha Sigma Honor Society, Quirie has never received a grade lower than a B+ at NJIT.

In men's swimming and diving's first meet in the new NJIT Wellness and Events Center Natatorium, and his final home meet as a Highlander, he posted wins in all four events he competed in. ■

NABC HONORS COURT RECOGNITION FOR NJIT'S WALSH AND BENDARY

The National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) recognized NJIT men's basketball players Reilly Walsh and Mohamed Bendary on the NABC's annual Honors Court awards program for the 2017-18 season. Each spring, the NABC recognizes men's collegiate basketball student-athletes who excelled in academics during the previous season. The NABC Honors Court celebrates the talents and gifts that these men possess off the court, and the hard work they exhibit in the classroom.

In order to be named to the Honors Court, a student-athlete must meet a high standard of academic criteria. The qualifications are as follows: academically a junior or senior and a varsity player; cumulative GPA of 3.2 or higher at the conclusion of the academic year; students must have matriculated at least one year at their current institution; and a member of an NCAA Division I, II, III, or NAIA Division I or II institution with a full-time NABC member coach. ■